

Quiz Section

ECG (Quiz No.4)

Dr. Ashish Sinha, Asst Prof Medicine, RMC

Brief History:

5 year old having diagnosed as Tetralogy of Fallot's is operated for total correction of shunt. His ECG before surgery (Fig 1) and 1 day after surgery (Figure 2) is shown below. He is stable with no signs of heart failure.

What is the diagnosis?

What are the most important causes of this pattern?

How will you treat it?

What is the immediate post operative complications post total correction?

Fig. 1

Fig. 2

