

CME for Medical Officers and Nurses

Organised by

Centre for Social Medicine, Loni

29 October 2015

Centre for Social Medicine (CSM) in collaboration with Department of Medicine, Rural Medical College has organized a One Day CME on "Updates in Medicine & Allied Subjects" for Medical Officers and Nursing Staff of 8 Rural Health Centres and 2 Mobile Clinics at CSM Lecture Hall on Thursday - the 29th October 2015.

The CME was inaugurated at 10 am by the "Chief Guest" - Brig. (Retd.) Dr. Venkataramani, Academic Advisor, PIMS, in the august presence of "Guests of Honour" - Dr. D.S.Kulkarni, Principal, RMC & Dr. Anil Kumar Roy, Professor of Medicine, RMC. All the Guests have guided the participants with their rich experience in the inaugural address. The CME was concluded at 4.30 pm with a follow-up Action Plan for future on periodical expert visits & an effective patient referral linkage between 8 RHCs & Dept. of Medicine, RMC promised by Dr. Anil Kumar Roy.

The faculty of Department of Medicine, RMC including Dr. Makarand Randive, Dr. Sanket Mulay, Dr. Pratik Shete, Dr. Vaishali Kadam, and Dr. Vedant Awasthi have served as Resource Persons for the CME which has covered topics like Management of Malaria & Dengue Fever, Asthma, STI and HIV, Diabetes and Swine Flue.

The CME was attended by 43 participants - 11 Medical Officers, 30 Nurses from Rahata, Babhaleshwar, Kolhar, Pathare, Lohare-Mirpur, Zarekathi (Tribal), Shendi (Tribal) and Rajur (Tribal) areas and 2 MPH students.