WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues,

Greetings from Nationwide Quality of Care Network (NQOCN) and Pravara Institute of Medical Sciences (DU), Loni, Maharashtra.

Quality improvement in healthcare means a systematic approach by a healthcare organization that monitors, assesses and improves the standards of quality healthcare. The organizational chain of activities is cyclic and needs continuous improvement to seek a higher level of performance. Continuous upgradation in healthcare activities can pull out healthcare organizations from inefficient traditional concepts and utilize technology/tools to perform efficiently and hence generate better quality results. Quality improvement is meant for enhancing safety, effectiveness, and efficiency. So, redesigning healthcare system requires indulgence in specialized methods and tools known to assist improvement

NQOCN (Nationwide Quality of Care Network) is a registered organization that partner with the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, GOI and UN partner agencies, WHO-SEARO, WHO India, UNICEF India and various other development partners that seek to facilitate the enhancement of Quality of Care in the maternal and neonatal healthcare domain. It is a voluntary network formed by teams working on quality improvement initiatives across all regions of the country.

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you for the International Conference on Health care Quality and Patient Safety at Pravara Institute of Medical Sciences (DU), located at Loni in Western Maharashtra. This medical university has emerged as one of the premiere institutes with state of art facilities for teaching and learning of undergraduate and postgraduate students of various disciplines and catering to the health needs of rural, tribal and underprivileged community for more than four decades.

The theme and the sub-themes of the conference have been aptly chosen, so as to cover health care quality and safety issues in comprehensive and holistic manner. Many important areas that remain unaddressed during speciality conferences are being included in the scientific programme. Many National and International experts in the area of Health Care Quality will participate in the conference and share their views and experiences on various aspects of Quality Improvement and Patient safety. The participation in the scientific deliberations will definitely enrich the delegates with recent advances in the field of Health Care Quality and Patient safety.

On behalf of Dept. of Obstetrics & Gynaecology and Department of Paediatrics of Dr.Balasaheb Vikhe Patil Rural Medical College, Pravara Institute of Medical Sciences (Deemed to be University), and NQOCN, we extend a warm invitation to participate in this International conference on very pertinent subject of Quality Improvement and Patient Safety.

We, the members of the organizing committee are looking forward to welcome you at Pravara Institute of Medical Sciences, Loni.
